(REGULATION AND DEVELOPMENT)

ACT, 1957,
ACT 67 OF 1957¹

[28TH December, 1957.]

An Act to provide for the regulation of mines and the development of minerals under the control of the Union.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement - (1) This Act may be called the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date² as the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette appoint.

2. Declaration as to expediency of Union control - It is hereby declared that it is expedient in the public interest that the Union should take under its control the regulation of mines and development of minerals to the extent hereinafter provided.

3. Definitions - In this Act unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) “minerals” includes all minerals except mineral oils ;

(b) “mineral oils” includes natural gas and petroleum ;

(c) “mining lease” means a lease granted for the purpose of undertaking mining operation and includes a sub-lease granted for such purpose ;

(d) “mining operations” means any operations undertaken for the purpose of winning any

mineral;

¹The Act has been extended to Goa, Daman and Diu by Regulation 12 of 1962 section 3 and schedule to Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regulation 6 of 1963, section 2 and Schedule I and to Pondichery by Regulation 7 of section 3 and Schedule I.

²1st June 1958 vide Notification No. G. S. R. 432 dated the 29th May 1958, see Gazette of India 1953 Extraordinary, Part II, section 3(I), page 225.

(e) “minor minerals” means building stones gravel ordinary clay ordinary sand other than sand used for prescribed purposes and any other mineral which the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette declare to be a minor mineral;

(f) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(g) ‘prospecting licence’ means a licence granted for the purpose of undertaking prospecting operations;

(h) “prospecting operations” means any operations undertaken for the purpose of exploring locating or proving mineral deposits ;and

(i) the expressions “mine” and ‘owner”, have the meanings assigned to them in the Mines Act, 1952.

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON UNDERTAKING PROSPECTING AND MINING OPERATIONS

4. Prospecting or mining operations to be under licence or lease (1) No person shall undertake any prospecting or mining operations in any area except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a prospecting licence or as the case may be a mining lease granted under this Act and the rules made thereunder :

Provided that nothing in this Sub-section shall affect any prospecting or mining operations undertaken in any area in accordance with the terms and conditions of a prospecting license or mining lease granted before the commencement of this Act which is in force at such commencement.

(2) No prospecting license or mining lease or mining lease shall be granted otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

¹4A. Termination of mining leases (1) Where the Central Government after consultation with the State Government is of opinion that it is expedient in the interest of regulation of mines and mineral development so to do it may request the State Government to make a premature termination of a mining lease in respect of any mineral lease in respect of any mineral other than a minor mineral and on receipt of such request the State Government shall make an order making a premature termination of such and granting a fresh mining lease in favour of such Government company or corporation owned or controlled by Government as it may think fit.

(2) Where the State Government after consultation with the Central Government is of opinion that it is expedient in the interest of regulation of mines and mineral development so to do it may by an order make premature termination of a mining lease in respect of any minor mineral and grant a fresh lease in respect of such mineral in favour of such Government company or corporation owned or controlled by Government as it may think fit.]

5. Restrictions on the grant of prospecting or licences or mining leases (1) No prospecting licence or mining lease shall be granted by a State Government to any person unless he-

- (a) holds a certificate of approval in the prescribed form from the State Government;
- (b) produces from the Income-tax Officer concerned an income-tax clearance certificate in the prescribed form;
- (c) satisfies such other conditions as may be prescribed.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this sub-section, a person shall be deemed to hold a certificate of approval notwithstanding that at the time his certificate of approval has expired if an application for its renewal is pending at that time.

(2) Except with the previous approval of the Central Government no prospecting licence or mining lease shall be granted-

- (a) as respects any mineral specified in the First Schedule; or
- (b) to any person who is not an Indian national .

Explanation.- For the purposes of this sub-section, a person shall be deemed to be an Indian national-

- (a) in the case of a public company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, only if a majority of the directors of the company are citizens of Indian and not less than fifty-one per cent of the share capital thereof is held by persons who are either citizens of India or companies as defined in the said Act;

(b) in the case of a private company as defined in the said Act only if all the members of the company are citizens of India;

(c) in the case of a firm or other association of individuals only if all the partners of the firm or members of the association are citizens of India; and

(d) in the case of an individual only if he is a citizen of India.

6. Maximum area for which a prospecting licence of mining may be granted¹[(1) No person shall acquire in any one State in respect of any mineral or prescribed group of associated minerals-

(a) one or more prospecting licences covering a total area of more than _____ twenty-five square kilometers; or

(b) one or more mining leases covering a total area of more than ten square kilometers

Provided that if the Central Government is of opinion that in the interests of the development of any mineral it is necessary so to do it may for reasons to be recorded by it in writing permit any person to acquire one or more prospecting licences or mining leases covering an area in excess of the aforesaid total area ;

(c) any mining lease or prospecting licence in respect of an area which is not compact or contiguous ;

Provided that if the Central Government is of opinion that in the interests of the development of any mineral it is necessary so to do it may for reasons to be recorded in writing permit any person to acquire a prospecting licence or mining lease in relation to any area which is not compact or contiguous]

(2) For the purposes of this section a person acquiring by or in the name of another person a prospecting licence or mining lease which is intended for himself shall be deemed to be acquiring it himself.

¹[(3) For the purposes of determining the total area referred to in sub-section (1) the area held under a prospecting licence or mining lease by a person as a member of a co-operative society company or other corporation or a Hindu undivided family or a partner of a firm shall be deducted from the area referred to in sub-section (1) so that the sum total of the area held by such person under a prospecting licence or mining lease whether as such member or partner or individually may not in any case exceed the total area specified in sub-section (1)].

¹Sub-section (3) inserted by Act 56 of 1972 section 3.

7. *****

8. Periods for which prospecting licences may be granted or renewed (1) - The period for which a prospecting licence may be granted shall not-

- (a) in the case of mica, exceed one year ; and
- (b) in the case of any other mineral exceed two years.

(2) A prospecting licence may be renewed for one or more periods each not exceeding the period for which the prospecting licence was originally granted if the State Government is satisfied that a longer period is required to enable the licensee to complete prospecting operations :

 Provided that no prospecting licence granted in respect of a mineral specified in the First Schedule shall be renewed except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), if the Central Government is of opinion that in the interests of mineral development it is necessary so to do it may for reasons to be recorded authorise the renewals of a mining lease for a further period or periods not exceeding in each case the period for which the mining lease was originally granted.

9. Royalties in respect of mining leases (1) The holder of a mining lease granted before the commencement of this Act shall notwithstanding anything contained in the instrument lease or in any law in force at such commencement pay royalty in respect of any ¹[mineral removed or consumed by him or by his agent manager employee contractor or sub-lessee] from the leased area after such commencement at the rate for the time being specified in the Second Schedule in respect of that mineral.

(2) The holder of a mining lease granted on or after the commencement of this Act shall pay royalty in respect of any ¹[mineral removed or consumed by him or by his agent manager employee contractor or sub-lessee] from the leased area at the rate for the time being specified in the Second Schedule in respect of that mineral.

²[(2A) The holder of a mining lease whether granted before or after the commencement of the Mines and Mineral (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, shall not be liable to pay any royalty in respect of any coal consumed by a workman engaged in a colliery provided that such consumption by the workman does not exceed one-third of a tone per month].

(3) The Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette amend the Second Schedule so as to enhance or reduce the rate at which royalty shall be payable in respect of any mineral with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification :

¹[Provided that the Central Government shall not enhance the rate of royalty in respect of any mineral more than once during any period of four years.]

²9A. Dead-rent to be paid by the lessee- (1) the holder of a mining lease whether granted before or after the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act 1972 shall notwithstanding any thing contained in the instrument of lease or in any other law for the time being in force pay to the State Government every year dead rent at such rate as may be specified for the time being in the Third Schedule for all the areas included in the instrument of lease :

Provided that where the holder of such mining lease becomes liable under section 9 to pay royalty for any mineral removed or consumed by him or by his agent manager employee contractor or sub-lessee from the leased area he shall be liable to pay either such royalty or the dead rent in respect of that area whichever is greater.

(2) The Central government may by notification in the Official Gazette amend the Third Schedule so as to enhance or reduce the rate at which the dead rent shall be payable in respect of any area covered shall take effect from such date as may be specified in the notification :

Provided that the Central Government shall not enhanced the rate of the dead rent in respect of any such area more than once during any period of four years.]

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING PROSPECTING LICENCES OR MINING LEASES IN RESPECT OF LAND IN WHICH THE MINERALS VEST IN THE GOVERNMENT

10. Application for prospecting licences or mining lease - (1) An application for a prospecting licence or a mining lease in respect of any land in which the minerals vest in the Government shall be made to the State Government concerned in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied the prescribed fee.

¹Proviso substituted by Act 56 of 1972.

²Section 9-A inserted by ibid.

(2) Where an application is received under sub-section (1) there shall be sent to the applicant an acknowledgement of its receipt within the prescribed time and in the prescribed form.

(3) On receipt of an application under this section the State Government may having regard to the provisions of this Act and any rules made thereunder grant or refuse to grant the licence or lease.

11. Preferential right of certain persons (1) Where a prospecting licence has been granted in respect of any land the licence shall have a preferential right for obtaining a mining lease in respect of that land over any other person:

Provided that the State Government is satisfied that the licensee has not committed any breach of the terms and conditions of the prospecting licence and is otherwise a fit person for being granted the mining lease.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) where two or more persons have applied for a prospecting licence or a mining lease in respect of the same land the applicant whose application was received earlier shall have a preferential right for the grant of the licence or lease as the case may be over an applicant whose application was received later :

Provided that where any such applications are received on the same day the State Government after taking into consideration the matters specified in sub-section (3) may grant the prospecting licence or mining lease as the case may be to such one of the applicants as it may deem fit.
